WINNER'S CIRCLE

It may have been a blustery, cold day on Saturday, but spirits and enthusiasm ran high at the Charter Day activities. An art exhibit, various lectures, the dedication of Clerc Hall, the alumni banquet and the spring drama production kept everyone busy and stimulated.

This year's art exhibit was very successful with a total of 108 paintings, prints and drawings entered by 25 artists. Ten photographers participated with 55 entries, and this year crafts were included for the first time.

Prior to the official opening of the exhibit, judges selected winning entries in three categories. Two Best of Show awards went to Charlie Shoup for photo photography and to Harry Williams for painting.

Other winners were: Rick Schoenberg, Marcellus Kleberg, James Hovey, Dominick Santora, Ralph Miller, Hank Pugh, Lolly Gilbert, Sheila Wadler, Linda Tom, Michael Aquila, Regina Hughes, Wanda Witczak, Michael Cardinale, John Afzelius, Betty Miller and Tjoan Tan. Best of Show in the crafts section went to Louis Val for a stunning chess set, and Flo Crammatte and Jack Gannon were given honorable mention for their entries.

In addition to the art awards, three individuals were recognized for meritorious achievement on behalf of deaf people. This year Dr. Luther Robinson, Ben Schowe, Sr., and Ray L. Jones received the Laurent Clerc, Alice Cogswell and Edward Miner Gallaudet Awards respectively. Carol Garretson presented these three awards on behalf of the Gallaudet College Alumni Association at the banquet Saturday evening.

The art exhibit will continue in the Visitors Center, Chapel Hall, through the end of this month. Please stop by and take a look.

SUMMER WORKSHOP FOR LIBRARIANS SCHEDULED

This summer the Edward Miner Gallaudet Library will be sponsoring a second Workshop on Library Services to Hearing Impaired People. It will be held on campus from Tuesday through Friday, July 2-5. The workshop is designed to explore ways librarians can serve hearing impaired people more effectively and function as a source of community information on hearing impairment and its consequences.

A team approach will be utilized, bringing together state librarians, heads of library organizations and leaders of the deaf community. For further information contact Jeanne Conway.

AROUND AND ABOUT

--The Gallaudet College Theatre's spring drama production of "Angel Street" will be presented again this Friday and Saturday night in the Auditorium at 8 p.m.

--EMERGENCY! HELP! The Wheaton Rescue Squad will demonstrate Safety in the Home -- how to avoid and what to do in an emergency -- on Monday, April 15, at 7:30 p.m. The demonstration will be held in the Wheaton Library, 11701 Georgia Avenue. An interpreter will be provided.

--The Rotary Foundation of Washington, D.C., has presented the College with a donation in the amount of $2,500 designated for financial support for foreign students. The award was made in honor of Leonard Elstad for his commitment and vision to young deaf people from foreign lands.

--Spring Is Green (although a chill is still in the air) has been recently published by the Pre-School Signed English Project as part of its Growing Up Series.

--The main phone number for the Payroll Office (John Buchanan, Bill Rosenthal and Jeff Shupe) has been changed to #875.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Consideration is being given to installing a coffee and doughnut bar in the student lounge (room #152) in Hall Memorial Building which would be open between the hours of 10 and 3 during the work week.

The lounge, which would remain open to students, of course, would serve a long-standing need for a central gathering spot for faculty and staff to meet (and to drink coffee).

If you are interested in such an undertaking, please add your name to the sign-up sheet in the Faculty Secretary's Office, HMB 101. No commitment, just a sign of interest!

AMONG OURSELVES

Pete Wisher is president-elect of the Therapeutic Section of the American Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation. Pete has also told us that the Gallaudet Dancers will be performing at an all-convention meeting of the AAHPER in Atlantic City next spring and will also be conducting a workshop at that time....A round of applause is in order for Joel Alves. Joel, who works full-time as a stationary engineer in the Heating Plant on the evening shift, is a full-time student at Howard University where he attained a 4.0 (straight "A") average last semester. Joel is in his fourth year of the School of Architecture... Donald Brown will be serving as a consultant on contingency marriage and behavior modification to the Rehabilitation Center for the Deaf, Cave Spring, Georgia, on April 17 and 18.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR

The Cultural Affairs Committee is planning two events, which will conclude its program for the academic year. On April 22, a group of panelists from varied educational backgrounds will discuss "A Secondary Education, Then What?". Planned to coincide with the Jr. NAD Convention to be held at the College, the panel discussion promises to be stimulating and informative. Discussion will get underway at 7:30 p.m. in the Auditorium.

If you have been intrigued by the beauty and discipline of the ballet, you won't want to miss the CAC trip to the Kennedy Center on April 25.

The Committee has arranged a visit to an open rehearsal of the National Ballet. Transportation will be provided. Buses will leave the Visitors Center, Chapel Hall, at approximately 6:45 p.m.

Please sign up as soon as possible (seats are limited to 30) in the Alumni and Public Relations Office. Tickets are $1 or $.50 to season pass holders.
